Stretch Your Potential

OUR PLASTIC MEETS YOUR POSSIBILITIES

Packaging comes in all shapes and sizes." And so should your packaging solutions. Flexibility is a must. You need to get exactly what you need, when you need it. Whether it's a last-minute custom order or the same run you've counted on for years, Crayex delivers the consistency required for every job. You require polyethylene protection to keep your products safe, and our team stands ready to make it happen.

Consistently Consistent

Small runs, large runs, complicated shapes and sizes... however you imagine it, Crayex has you covered. But ultimately, your requirements go beyond protective coatings. You want a trusted partner that is an extension of your team – one you will depend on as your business grows. Crayex understands the importance of forging long-term partnerships built on trust, easy communication, personal attention, and – inevitably – results.

Crayex is a custom blown film manufacturer, producing highly engineered, co-extruded, monolayer films and bags. We excel at producing consistent, custom polyethylene solutions that offer the best in protection.
